Dear Elshad
I hope this email finds you well.
We missed the March 7 window. But I still believe we should meet with Mr. Tshuva.
Pl let me know when you might be available in Europe. I will coordinate the meeting.
I also want to update you re some other meetings I've had.
Pl contact when you are free.
Looking forward.
Best

Dear Mr. Barak,

Thank you for your letter. I will be in London in the second half of 6th and full 7th March. I regret to inform that I will not have any chance to meet Mr. Tshuva then even if he may be there. I will provide some options for II or EU by the next week, if that is OK.

Yours,

Elshad

Dear Elshad
Thx for the response. I have to stay in IL this week but I think we better hit on the (Tshuva) iron when it is still hot. How about a meeting in IL or Europe (Vienna?Zurich? Paris?) In the second or third week of March.
Try to give me two windows and I'll try to set it with Mr. Tshuva.
The first half of the transfer was made. Thx again. But I still expect the other half to be made soon.
Looking forward. I have some more updates for our meeting.
Best

would have been proud to hear what I've told him about her son) rather than listening to his (good) oil and gas guys. Mr. Tshuva fully agreed. We've decided on a trilateral meeting(me, you and him)either In Israel next week or in London or Vienna in the coming two or three weeks. I prefer an early meeting when the iron is still hot. But I need to hear from you on your schedule windows.
Will update you on the other developments when we meet.
Waiting for your response and the quick, long due,transfer.
